

Allie Boardman Bursary Fund

The Allie Boardman award was established by New Directions to honour a long-time staff member who worked in child welfare. Youth who are going on to post secondary education are eligible. Also, youth who are extended in care by a Child and Family Services Agency, up to the age of 25, are also eligible. Applicants must be currently enrolled in a program or receiving a service at New Directions. The Allie Boardman Bursary is $1000.00.

Basic Information

Name: _____
First Name Last Name

Address: _____
Street City

Province: _____ Postal Code: _____

Date of Birth: _____

Email: _____

Post Secondary Information

Name of Institution _____

Address: _____
City, Province, Postal Code

Phone Number and Email

Which program have you been accepted? _____

What is the start date? _____

Consent

If you are awarded a bursary from New Directions do you permit the agency to print your name along with your photo in its annual report, newsletter, website and social media platforms?

Circle: Yes No Maybe: I would like more information

All applicants must submit the following information:

- 1). Proof of acceptance at an accredited learning institution
- 2). High School Transcript and or Post Secondary Education transcript
- 3). A written reference from a Program Coordinator or Manager at New Directions
- 4). Provide a letter, up to 300 words, describing your goals and how this bursary will help you achieve them.
- 5). Application must be received by May 30 of current year

Signature: _____ Date: _____

If you have any questions about the Allie Boardman Bursary Fund, please email: info@newdirections.mb.ca